

Martela

AUDITORIUM

UNIQUE AUDITORIUMS ALL OVER THE WORLD

PRIMO

Ergonomically shaped upholstery • backrest upholstered on both sides or with plywood background • seat upholstered on both sides or with bottom side made of plywood or perforated • available with armrests or any armrest option • all writing tablet alternatives

Musikteatret Holstebro
2006 Denmark
Architect: Kjær & Richter A/S
1202 pcs

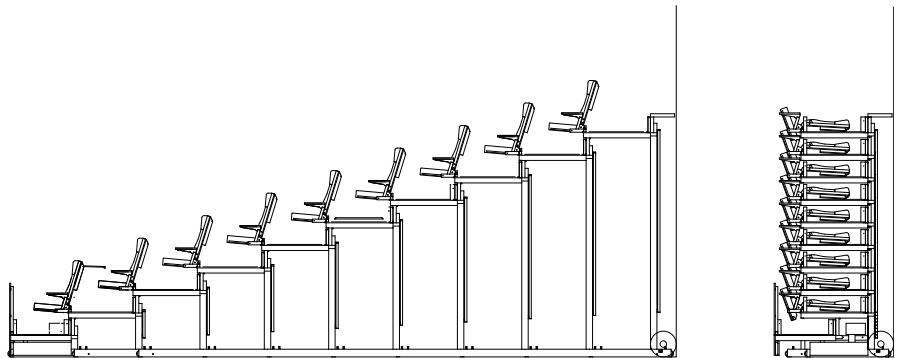

PRIMO telescopic

Thanks to telescopic seating, the same hall can serve many different uses: it can be used as an auditorium during the day and a sports court at night, for example.

Jyväskylän aikuisopisto
2009 Finland
Architect: Arkkitehtitoimisto
Pertti Nousiainen Ky
154 pcs

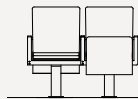

ORIGO

Upholstered seat and backrest • the back of the backrest and the underside of the seat are made of wood • folding writing tablet on its own base • armrests • the collection also includes a chair

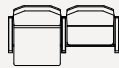

• 50-60 •

• 95-110 •

• 49 •

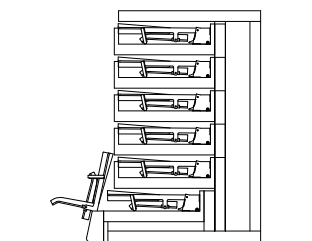

Kunstens Hus, 2009 Denmark
 Architect: Steven Holl Architects
 with Kjær & Richter
 150 pcs

ORIGO telescopic

Knut Hamsun center, 2009 Norway
 Architect: Steven Holl Architects
 142 pcs

OPTIONS • wood alternatives include birch, beech, ash, maple and oak • the metal parts are epoxy painted with the desired RAL shade • free upholstery material • chairs installed on flat, tilting or stepped floor • all models also available as easily movable chair rows or with wall fastening • extensive range of accessories.

ACCESSORIES • independent tables / writing tablets for first row of seats • cable channels • microphone option • option for network and electric connection • row numbers • seat numbers • row lights • writing tablet lighting • cup holder • magazine rack.

CERTIFICATES AND STANDARDS • ISO 140001 • ISO 90001 • Investors in People certificate • Polyurethane foam EN 1021 part 1 • Chair durability: EN 12727 (level 4) • Lacquers and adhesives used: E1, and by order E0 and others. Also country-specific certificates.

Origo chair
Uppsala Konsert &
Kongress
2007 Sweden
Architect: Henning &
Larsen architects
1147 pcs