London born artist, designer and printmaker.

Nurture Nature

29 APRIL - 11 MAY 2013

As part of a colourful and versatile career in design and print, Darren has recently returned to his favourite medium of screen printing and is enjoying the result of 20 years experience within the art and design world which began at Central St.Martins School of Art and the Royal College of Art in London.

The series of prints are inspired by objects and images found after Darren and his father (also an artist and a passionate butterfly and exotic insect collector) cleared out his father's study/workshop stuffed with a unique collection of artefacts and memorabilia from his life. This discovery opened up a world of ideas, images and memories that fuelled much of the work.

Inspiration for the coffee prints comes after living for 6 years in Puglia, Italy (where he still has a home) and various trips to the Blue Mountains of Jamaica.
