Peter Denmark

1-28 FEBRUARY 2013

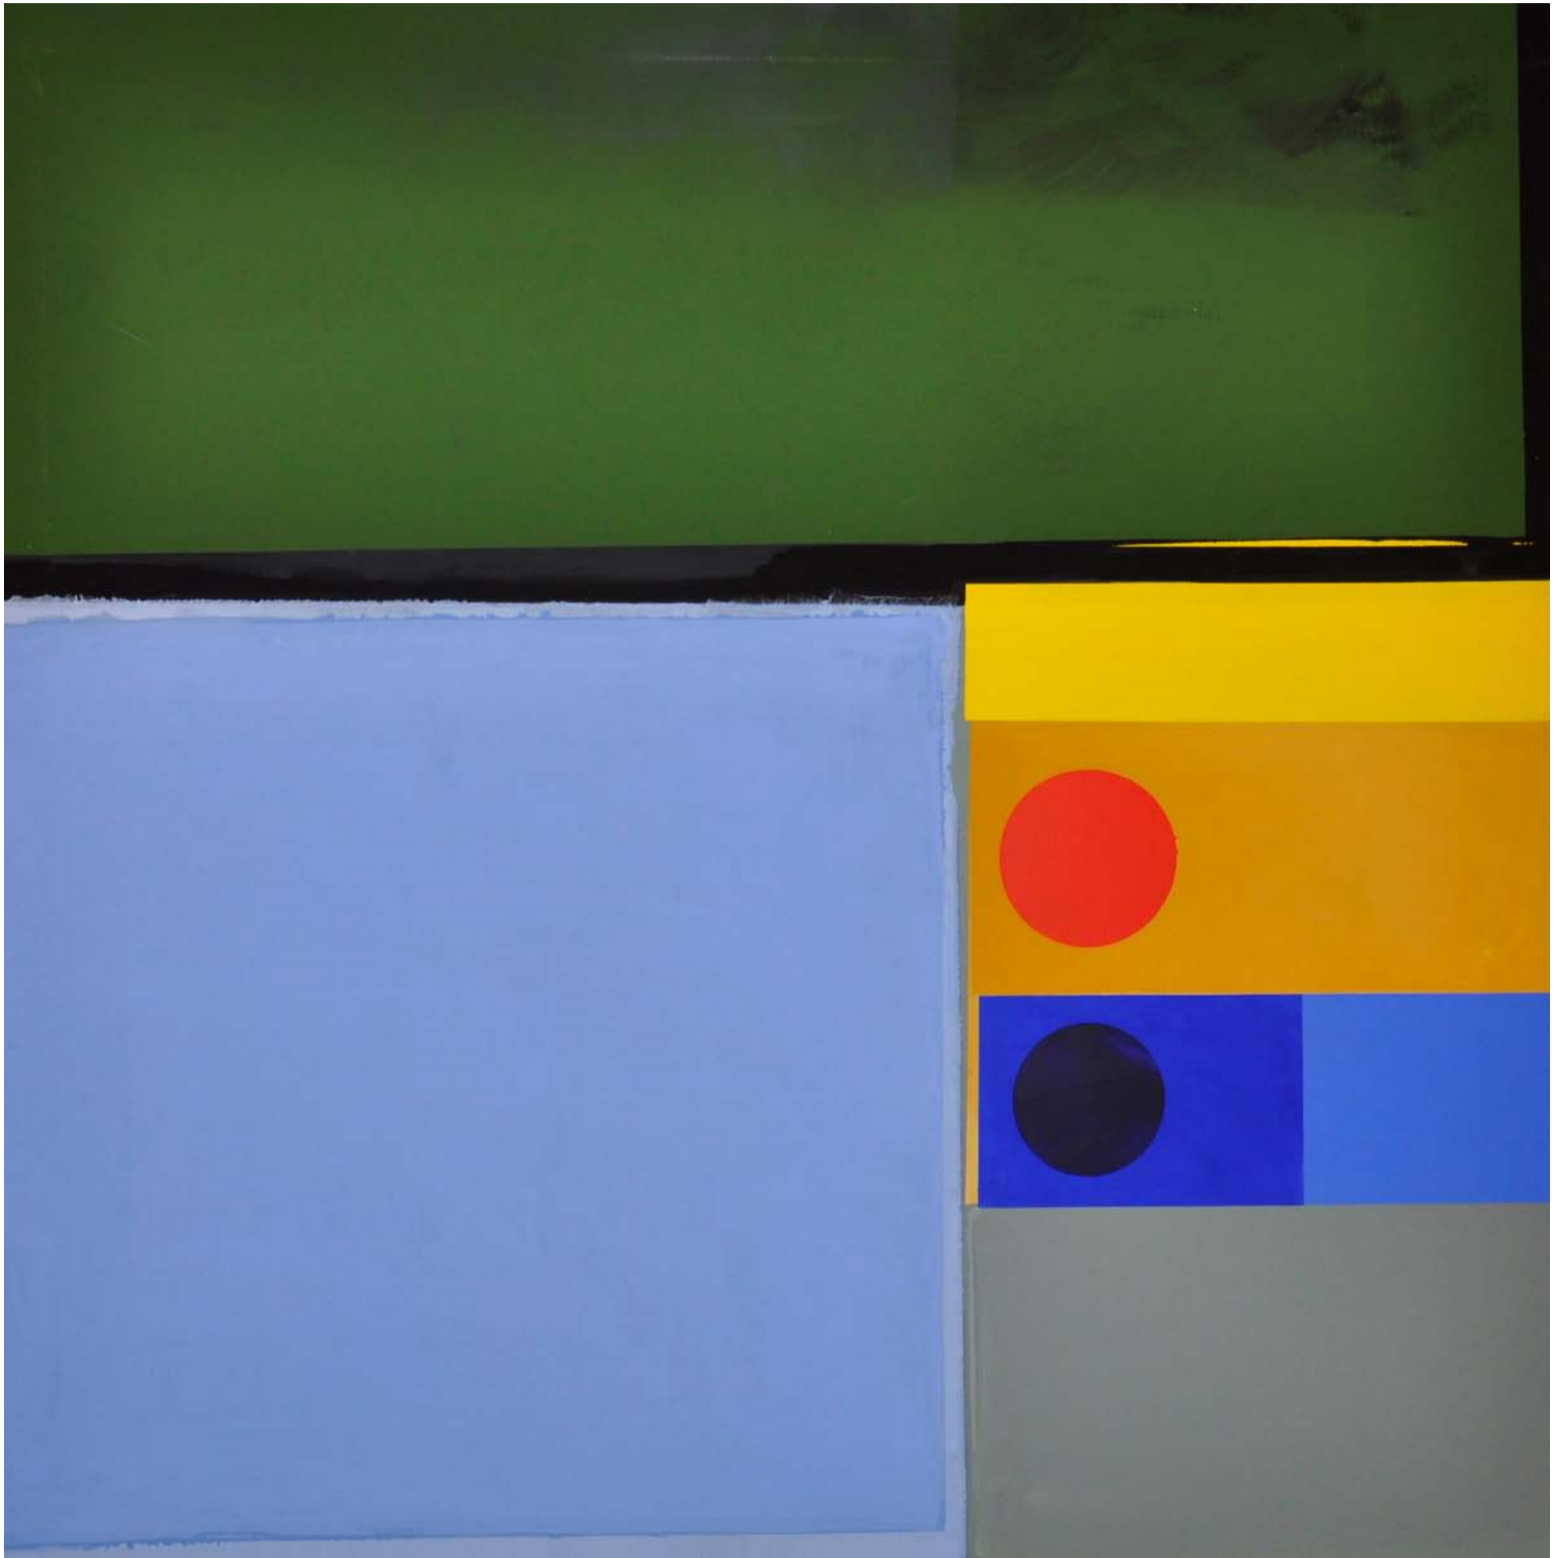

Peter Denmark (1950) is a self taught British artist

Denmark has exhibited widely in London and been commissioned to paint large works for Cable and Wireless HQ, Stansted and Glasgow airports, Co-op, and Orange HQ.

Denmark's paintings were first shown publicly at the prestigious Art London '89 at Olympia, followed by numerous exhibitions in London galleries, where his abstract use of paint formed exciting and bold works of art that are highly regarded by London collectors.

This exhibition present his most recent work, abstract bold lines filled with stunning block colour that work together to form the familiar, this work entertains and holds and keeps you coming back for more. Also presented are some of his own private studio collection.

Denmark's work has been sold in contemporary art auctions alongside Banksy, John Hoyland and Lucian Freud.
