TASTING NOTES

It has a boisterous, quasi-Gewurztraminer bouquet of lemon zest, barley sugar and apricot that leaps out of the glass. The palate is well-balanced with peach and elderflower on the entry, and expresses the varietal with some style. This is an effervescent, somehow life-affirming white wine.

FOOD PAIRING

This wine pairs wonderfully with grilled fish, fresh shellfish and focaccia topped with tapenade.

POINTS OF DISTINCTION

Tim Atkin, Master of Wine, in his 2012 Argentina Special Report, named this wine one of the Top 5 White Wines of Argentina saying "Torrontés doesn't get much better than this"
