TASTING NOTES

This wine has deep purple hues. In the nose, it features spicy aromas with fresh, ripe fruits and animal notes. In the mouth, this wine shows a fresh attack and great openness as well as soft tannins and long finish.

FOOD PAIRING

This wine is a great match with grilled ribeye or NY strip steak, roast fowl, and pork with herbs or Latin spices.

POINTS OF DISTINCTION

Blend of best terroirs: Luján de Cuyo adds a ripe, mouth-filling fruit character that's very long on the palate; Valle de Uco gives bold, young primary fruit aromas and roundness in the mouth
