TASTING NOTES

Pale, straw–yellow, on the nose fresh and savory fruit such as pears and quince, accompanied by spicy peppery notes. Lively acidity and fresh and nutty fruit aromas with a spicy, peppery touch, jaunty on the palate with a clear character. Long finish.

FOOD PAIRING

Cold and warm appetizers, poultry, fried meat like Wiener Schnitzel

POINTS OF DISTINCTION

Gruner Veltliner is a variety of white wine grape variety grown primarily in Austria, Slovakia, and the Czech Republic. It has a reputation of being a particularly food–friendly wine. It is made into wines of many different styles – much is intended for drinking young.
