TASTING NOTES

Beautiful garnet color with aromas of wild strawberries, saddle leather and cola root. A complex Pinot with notes of leather, spice, and cherry/raspberry confiture on the palate. Amazing aroma and finishes with an enjoyable Burgundian bent.

FOOD PAIRING

Lamb chops, grilled salmon, roasted duck or chicken, and game birds.

POINTS OF DISTINCTION

The fruit for this wine is sourced from the glorious Gualtallary "G-Lot" vineyard, the first extreme high altitude Chardonnay planted in Mendoza. This special terroir produces wines with intense flavors, great minerality and pure elegance.
