TASTING NOTES

Striking lemony white color.
The nose is highly expressive with fruity notes in evidence.
With good aromatic strength and good length, this is an elegant dry white Burgundy with a pleasing buttery finish.

FOOD PAIRING

This wine will complement fish, poultry, white meats and cured meats.

POINTS OF DISTINCTION

"Cru Classe of Chablis"
The Chablis region of Burgundy is classified according to four tiers of Appellation d'origine contrôlée (AOC) designation. The top two are the crus of Chablis. Wines made entirely from fruit from these vineyards are entitled to list their wines as cru classe Chablis on the wine label. Below these are the lower designations of basic Chablis AOC and Petit Chablis.
