

Terrance L. Tucker

Terrance L. Tucker, son of Rev. James and Gussie Tucker, was born the youngest of three and raised in Columbia, SC. A graduate of C. A. Johnson High School, he furthered his education at South Carolina State University where he obtained both his Bachelor's degree in Sports Management and Master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling. While progressing in his counseling career, Terrance has been employed with the Department of Disabilities in Washington DC, as a mental health counselor in Charlotte, NC and with the Georgia Army National Guard as a program coordinator. Currently, he is a Psychological Evaluator for East Central Regional Hospital in Augusta, GA. Terrance, a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc., enjoys spending time with his family and friends, traveling, sports, working out and mentoring young men throughout the Columbia and Augusta region. Terrance attends Tabernacle Baptist Church in Augusta, GA where he currently resides.

Terrance's Motto:

“Do unto others as you would have them do unto you”