

Julie Gehring of Williamsville attended the Buffalo Speedskating's Buffalo Summer Training Camp last week at the Northtown Center at Amherst.

Buffalo Speedskating holds summer training camp

Buffalo Speedskating, in conjunction with Eastern Regional Camps and Coach Tom Miller, conducted its annual Buffalo Summer Training Camp Aug. 26-31 at the Northtown Center at Amherst.

The camp was attended by 20 junior skaters from throughout New York and southern Ontario. In attendance was Julie Gehring, a long-time club member and Williamsville resident.

In addition, through its Learn to Speedskate program, Buffalo Speedskating makes it fun and safe for anyone to try the sport.

The not-for-profit organization has been around in various incarnations for over 50 years. The club boasts an active, growing membership, with skaters of all abilities, ranging from age 6 to 70. The club practices twice a week, at 7 p.m., Wednesdays at the Riverside Ice Rink, 156 Tacoma Ave., Buffalo, and at 4 p.m. on Sundays at the Cazenovia Ice Rink, 25 Cazenovia St., Buffalo.

For more information about the club, visit www.buffalospedskating.org or contact Alan Jay at 553-7661 or alan@buffalospedskating.org.